To Maui business owners:

I've known John Absalom since the late nineties and trust him implicitly with my radio advertising and promotion. He is a valuable resource because I have very little time to spend on marketing. John keeps in contact regularly, understands the goals of my business, and manages copy writing, scheduling, and all my "advertising stuff" expertly. John has made a positive difference regarding my profits, and I recommend him to anyone who desires the same.

Sincerely,

Steven Van Aller
